We are writing to you about MAXIMUS SEVEDGE's Social Security benefits.

What You Should Know

MAXIMUS SEVEDGE is no longer entitled to Social Security benefits beginning June 2021. His benefits are stopping because in that month he is

- 18 years old, and
- not disabled, and
- not a full-time elementary or secondary level school student.

If You Disagree With The Decision

If you do not agree with this decision, you have the right to appeal. We will review your case and look at any new facts you have. A person who did not make the first decision will decide your case. We will review the parts of the decision that you think are wrong and correct any mistakes. We may also review the parts of our decision that you think are right. We will make a decision that may or may not be in your favor.

- You have 60 days to ask for an appeal in writing.
- The 60 days start the day after you receive this letter. We assume you got this letter 5 days after the date on it unless you show us that you did not get it within the 5-day period.

If you do call or visit an office, please have this letter with you. It will help us answer your questions.
